

Buffalo Springs -	Elder Elmer Perrigo Deacon Ernest Lee Wainscott
Rock Bridge -	Deacon E. C. Sherron
Enon Chapel -	Deacon G. W. Oldham
Mount Tabor -	Deacon Donnie McDonald
Salem -	Elder A. G. Gregory Elder Quentin Sneed Elder E. W. Scruggs Deacon James Porter Deacon Robert Porter Deacon Herbert Dickens Deacon Odell Graham Deacon Walter Brinkley
White Hill -	Deacon J. E. Webb
Lafayette -	Elder Paul Oldham
East Main Street -	Elder H. D. Linville
Koi Church (Japan) -	Elder J. H. Smith
Harmony -	Elder L. C. Long
Oak Forest #2 -	Deacon W. H. Long
Fellowship -	Deacon W. G. Massey Deacon O. D. Kemp

- Elder A. G. Gregory was elected the moderator of the council, and Elder Paul Oldham its clerk. Elder F. L. Ray was selected to preach the sermon, Elder J. C. Walker to read the Articles of Faith, Elder H. C. Vanderpool to read the Church Covenant, Elder T. C. Jones to pray the organizing prayer, and Elder J. H. Smith to charge the church.
- Elder F. L. Ray was presented by the moderator to preach the sermon. He read from 1 Peter 2, spoke about the need for churches to teach and practice the truth, and identified the distinguishing marks of a New Testament Church. The assembly then sang "Take the Name of Jesus with You" and "O What a Savior."
- After lunch, the congregation sang "Jesus, Hold my Hand" and "Down on my Knees." Elder H. G. Taylor led the group in prayer. The letters of those going into the organization of the new church were read by the clerk (27 total):

Salem -	Bobby Durham, Richard Tuttle, Wilma Durham, Bill Wheeler, Effie Wheeler, Ethelene Driver, Dean Driver, Thomas Browner, Margie Browner
Union Camp -	Orbie West, Fleeta West
Cedar Grove -	Francis Sneed
New Harmony -	Mattie Linville
Old Hopewell -	Lola Durham
Union Hill -	Raymond Hall, Margie Hall, Ronnie Hall
West End -	William Hall, Ruby Hall, Johnny Carman, Thomas Vanhooser, Leavella Vanhooser, Minnie Brawner, Johnnie Hall, Margaret Browner, Fannie Hall, Robert Browner